Foreword

"It was the best of times, it was the worst of times." These famous words by Dickens can be applied to any time, to any place. During our four years in Ludlow High School, we have had much of the best combined with a little of the worst. However, it is better by far to remember the good and happy days spent at Ludlow High.

With this in mind, we have tried to create herein a permanent record of perhaps the best four years of our lives. With this goal in mind, the editors and staffs of the senior yearbook take pride in presenting the 1958 edition of

THE LUDLOW LION!

Dedication

Mr. Rooney

Mr. Messenger

To both Mr. Grattan H. Rooney and Mr. Archie H. Messenger, we extend sincere gratitude and thanks for all they have done for the students of the Ludlow High School.

Mr. Messenger has been our instructor in instrumental music and the director of our school band for thirty-five years. Throughout this time, he has given hours of energetic effort and of devotion to faithful teaching, and enthusiastic leadership of the band in parades and at school functions. For him, we wish a long and successful retirement.

Mr. Rooney has spent several years in our school, first as a teacher and now as Director of Driver Education and Administrative Assistant. In his quiet, steady way, he has instilled in many a young adult a respect for the laws of our Democracy, and especially for the laws of the highway. Famed for his dry and clever humor, Mr. Rooney, we hope, will continue to be, for many years yet, a pillar of our high school faculty and administration.

So, to Mr. Grattan H. Rooney and Mr. Archie H. Messenger, we proudly dedicate this 1958 edition of

A TALE OF THE AGES

IN PROSE

It was the year 1954, the age of our foolishness, over which William Milroy ruled with an iron hand. His most loyal advisors were: Arthur Letendre, crown pretender No. 1; Jacqueline Methe, faithful scribe; and Ann Jaworsky, the citizens' banker. The most mighty councilors at the court were Beverly Bousquet, Emilie Martin, and George Palhete. That year, the citizens were able to enjoy two important events—the Freshman Dance and the Freshman Picnic.

The next year was our age of hope. That year brought a startling change with Frances Szlosek reigning as Queen. That year, Paul Bowler aspired to succeed to her high office, while Anna Van Wyck was the loyal scribe. Once again, Ann Jaworsky was elected banker. Wise ladies counseled Frances—Elaine Graveline, Emilie Martin, and Catherine Stupak. Under their great power of organization, there was held for all the citizens, a magnificent banquet, followed by another picnic.

A revolution occurred the next year with Robert Warren becoming King. Robert French emerged as chief pretender, and Barbara Martowski was the new scribe. Once again, Ann Jaworsky retained her position as banker. John Chabot, Elaine Graveline, and Carol Moccio advised the four officers. With these new leaders, we held the fall Junior Dance and the June Prom.

In the fourth year, the best of times, Robert Fierlit reigned, with Joseph Szlosek acting as second in command. Jane Kawecky was court scribe and Elaine Graveline, banker. Appointed to the Grand Council were Carol Moccio, Catherine Stupak, and Irene Carvalho. During this year, a Donkey Basketball game was sponsored to finance the yearbook; both ventures proved to be great successes. The seniors also enjoyed their annual ball, and they were very proud of their production of The Ludlow Lion. As these annals go to press, we are now awaiting the main events of the academic year—Ivy Day, the Class Banquet, and Graduation!

IN VERSE

The Halls of Ivy now we leave
To go our separate ways,
But memories that we've gathered here
Will linger all our days.

The years in school have taught us much,
To think and act with skill,
To solve our problems, trust in God,
And meet the future as He wills.

And as we swiftly tread Life's path,
We'll strive to do our best,
To fill the lives of other folk,
And ours with happy zest.

Though we the future cannot see,
We'll trust in God and pray;
For he alone can see beyond,
And he will show the way.

"AND THIS I PROPHECY"

I—Spacia Supreme—am seeress extraordinary and astrological advisor to the great—especially the aging, ever breathless Pat Boone; to the dogless former Vice President Nixon; and to the now defunct, ex-leader Khrushchev. I gaze into my atomic-crystal ball and prophesy the following for the year 1978 and for members of the twentieth-reunioining class of the Ludlow High School.

Tomorrow is forever! For each of us a star will shine brightest in the year 1978 A.D. For that century I prophesy the Millenium!

I see, in 1978, that Stan Ryczek is now head of the local unemployment agency. His private secretary is Mary Gibb. Carol Franck has become the chief car-hop at Ernie's, a chain of restaurants presently owned by Richard Moore. Eugene LeBoeuf, a roving reporter, says that during his monthly visit to Ernie's, he saw Richard Perkins, a one-time society play-boy, washing dishes (This report has not been confirmed).

Nancy Lussier, a dance instructor, specializes in "Rnhh," a new dance from the Moon, introduced by John Zielinski upon his return from the first interplanetary trip made in a rocket designed by Paul Bowler. John Dryjowicz is president of the "Satellite Engineering Corporation." Pat Bell, a former model, is now doing a man's job as technical writer for the engineering staff. Chief engineer is Joe Szlosek.

In Hollywood, Bob Fierlit, owner and director of R. T. F. Movie Productions, has just returned from Mars, and he is busy hiring Pat Zabawa and Emilie Martin for his next space movie. On the same payroll are Jane Kaweck, the world's most famous dress designer, and Rosemary Harackiewicz, make-up artist. The star of this film, "One-Way Ticket to Mars," is Collin Lake, co-starred with Gladys Welch.

On the planet Taurus, Dede Douville and Kay Green are breeding and training "flying horses." "Skeets" Jablonski has placed his entire fortune on a horse named "Flee-foot Flip." The winnah!!

Meanwhile, in Florida, Fred Aurnhammer, manager of a race track known as "Freddie's Freeway," is having trouble with two of his drivers, Jack Chabot and Richard Wilcox, who refuse to compete against two women drivers, Evelyn Joaquin and Carol Moccio. It has been discovered that Norman Letendre has been hired to put the girls' racing cars out of commission. He has been arraigned in court and has as his lawyer, Robert Warren. It looks like an open and shut case. A petition to outlaw women racers is now being circulated, and it will be presented to the Governor of the State of Florida, our own Frances Szlosek.

Barbara Edelmann is the star player in the famous "Lion" basketball league. Bernard Larose is the proud owner of a trophy for swimming, while Ken Brothers, pro at the Ludlow Country Club, uses only MINK tees. Tony Luiz and her sister, Vera, now manage a soccer team called the "Portuguese Anvilz." The "Polish Hawks," managed by Pat Kolano, are still champs. With Kathleen Wlodyka back in action, how can they lose? Referee Betty Smola favors the Hawks by wearing her "snazzy" red, white, and blue striped knee socks at all home games.

Flash!! Francis Houle recently made his first million on a new record, "I Love You, My Comet Cutie, in Spite of Your Sawed-off Tail!" He's being mobbed by a crowd of teen-agers. His bodyguards are Jeff Wilcox and George Palhete.

Teddy Bojan and Joe Wersetsky have set out on a safari to the African Congo. Irene Carvalho, medical technician, is going along, armed only with a sense of humor, an uncanny knack for praying with a scalpel in her hand, and a love for people that cannot be limited by the color of their skin.

That famous architect, Bruce Gay, has just completed drawings for an animal museum for Elaine Graveline's collection. Elaine, a philanthropist, has been catering to underprivileged children for the past ten years.

Tootsie Stupak, who is now happily married, is raising a company of little sailors. She attended a P. T. A. meeting last week with Dorothy Morrisette, Rosie Monette, Charlotte Reynolds, and Mary Ellen Nelson. Topic of discussion at the meeting was the still new Ludlow High School, blueprints of which were drawn by William Tucker.

Anna Van Wyck is editor-in-chief of the local newspaper, "The Leader." Ella Mae Gauthier edits a column "Advice to the Lovelorn." Roger Gregoire is the paper's foreign correspondent, and Kathleen O'Neill is assistant managing editor. Bill Milroy, in his usual sardonic vein, is an extremely shrewd observer, and he writes some of the most entertaining copy produced today.

On the fashion front, Jean Ouellette and Erma Palmeiredo are modeling the latest in plastic and synthetic clothes. Beverlyann Flagg is director of a charm school, "The Hour Glass." Her assistant is Geraldine Peczka. Barbara Martowski is giving lessons in public speaking.

Nancy Berselli is teaching home economics at the University of Massachusetts, while Helen Castro is teaching languages at Mount Holyoke College. Joan Brunelle owns and operates the "Tiny Boys' Nursery School."

Carol Coupal is the dietician at the new Ludlow Suburban Hospital. Her meals are the bright spots in every patient's day. Doctor Larry Green, trying to beat the stork, has been seen dashing up the hospital steps. His nurse, Linda Huff, burning the telephone lines, is always trying to locate "Doc." The new arrival, making an even dozen for his parents, is a boy—for Judy Roberts, who has been chosen the "American Mother Most Likely to Have a Nervous Breakdown This Year."

Diane Sprecher will sing "The Donkey Serenade" to her favorite mule (before the big game tonight between the Merry Marsmen and the Meandering Mercuries).

Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth French, the former Dorothy Gamble, are still honeymooning in the Bahamas.

Sandra Desnoyers, home for the week-end, is proudly displaying her synthetic diamond ring to Audrey Graham, who in turn invites Sandy to see the chest of silver-plated tinware presented to her by her fiance.

Carol LaFlamme and Martha Paul are hailed as the top dance team on ice for the "Ice Follies of 1978," opening at the Boston Garden. Guest of honor at the Imperial Ball at the Astoria-Hilton will be Kathleen Saletnik. The cast of the Follies will give benefit performances for the Hospitalized Veterans' Service.

Judy Stuart and Margaret Tremblay have completed plans for a trip around the world in eighty minutes, sponsored by the American Geographical Society. A "bon voyage" dinner is being given in their honor by former classmates.

And now, I—seeress supreme of the Atomic Age—must now don my newest creation—to resume my travel through space in my endless (to date) search for peace for you and for those who will come after you!!!

"OUR FIRST TESTAMENT"

We, the class of 1958, being of supersonic judgment and possessing great outer spatial physical power, do hereby bequeath the following: Collectively to the faculty, treasured memories of the unpredictable class of '58; to the Juniors, the crumbling walls of our Alma Mater; to the Sophomores, the echoes of our laughter and our tears; to the Freshmen, a brighter tomorrow. Individually, we leave the following:

FREDERICK AURNHAMMER leaves to Bob Podoski all the knowledge he's taken out of his school books, with the hope that he could get it all into one brain cell. He leaves his sixth-period study to anyone who dares to sleep while being bombed by the Freshmen.

PATRICIA BELL wills her ability to play basketball and her pleasing personality and smile to Nancy Jarosz.

NANCY BERSELLI leaves her typing ability to Terry Mosio. She also leaves her seat in Problems to her sister, Carol.

THEODORE BOJAN leaves his ability to get along with Mr. Kurty to Stanley Zielinski. His place on the Honor Roll he bequeathes to his sister, Alice.

PAUL BOWLER leaves his seat in 205 to his brother, Ward. He wills his ability to get along with most teachers to anyone who needs it.

KENNETH BROTHERS leaves his English outlines to Robert Dill, and to Andrew Johnston his "tips on golf."

JOAN BRUNELLE leaves her arguments in Problems with Mr. Hurley to her cousin, Edward Brunelle; and to her sister, Joyce, and her friends, she leaves her "gift of gab" in Miss Saulnier's English classes.

IRENE CARVALHO leaves to Mickey Szlosek her ability to get caught by Mr. Hurley for doing "Nothing," and to Connie Podoski all her English outlines.

HELEN CASTRO leaves her ability to clown to Elaine Carroll. She leaves to her brother, Manny, her love for mathematics.

JOHN CHABOT leaves to Bob Podoski his fifth period English class, and he hopes Bob can get as much sleep as he did behind Ken Brothers, who made a good door. To any girl in the Junior Class he leaves his skill in driving. "Hope you don't get any tickets; I didn't!" he says.

CAROL COUPAL leaves her love for school and homework to Linda Dickey, and to any Junior girl, she wills her indecipherable Stenography notebooks.

SANDRA DESNOYERS leaves her tenor sax to any giant who wishes it, while her No. 7 basketball uniform goes to Nancy Jarosz.

DEANNA DOUVILLE leaves her ability to answer questions in Home Economics to Dorothy Male. To Marsha Minney she leaves her will to volunteer for orals.

JOHN DRYJOWICZ leaves his baseball glove and other equipment to John Humber.

BARBARA EDELMANN leaves her basketball uniform and her place on the varsity team to Nancy Jarosz. She leaves her seat in Geography to Dolores Dec.

ROBERT FIERLIT leaves to John Chaves the ability to get to school early enough to get a parking space. His bottomless locker he leaves to any antique collector who wants it.

BEVERLYANN FLAGG leaves her typewriter in Typing Class to any up-and-coming typists; her Home Nursing notebook to any would-be Mother.

CAROL FRANCK leaves her car-hop job at El Rancho to whoever is crazy enough to take it. She leaves her bookkeeping ruler and gym suit, that bears "Jack's" name, to Pauline Cyranowski.

KENNETH FRENCH leaves to Junior Zabek his ability to drive recklessly and survive to finish high school. To Tommy Duffy, he leaves all his bad luck, and his ability to keep out of trouble with Chief Thompson.

DOROTHY GAMBLE leaves to Rosemarie Martin her locker that never closes without a kick, and to Tommy Tucker her ability to get up early in the morning to go to school.

BRUCE GAY leaves his burner in Chemistry 41 to his brother, Wallace. He wills his parking space in the lot to his little brother, Robert.

MARY GIBB leaves to Grace Dias her love for orals and her ability to get "A's" in them. To anyone who is crazy enough to talk a lot in Mrs. Ziwo's room, her lonely seat in the back of the room.

AUDREY GRAHAM leaves her seat in Stenography II to Barbara Budnick, who thinks she will like it. To Ann Bourdeau, Audrey wills her ability to go steady.

ELAINE GRAVELINE wills to Lynda Fidalgo and Pauline Cyranowski the strength in her right arm that has enabled her to scoop pistachio ice cream at the "Double D." To Tom Carroll and "Jackie" Palatino, she leaves the privilege of proving once again next fall that Mr. Grattan Rooney really has nine lives where Driver Education is concerned!

KIRSTEN GREEN leaves to Janice McArthur her Senior Home Room seat. To Marsha Minney, she leaves her ability to get along with Miss Smith.

LAWRENCE GREEN leaves his Home Room seat to Robert Dill. To "Red" Markiewicz he leaves all his books and classes.

ROGER GREGOIRE leaves his front seat in Mr. Boita's "Trig" class to Nicky Humber. All new gum wrappers he leaves to Mrs. Ziwo.

ROSEMARY HAKAKIEWICZ leaves her seat on the school bus to Judy Burroughs. Her gym clothes and shower shoes go to her cousin, Joyce Bienvenu.

FRANCIS HOULE leaves his singing in the halls to "Smiley" Brennan; to the Junior boys, chemistry with Mr. Sunderland.

LINDA HUFF leaves her seat in Miss Saulnier's class to her sister, Sally; also to Sally, her locker, gym clothes, and books, to all of which she is entirely welcome.

CHARLES JABLONSKI leaves his golf clubs to Andy Johnston. His warped locker and books go to Robert Dill.

EVELYN JOAQUIN leaves to Carole Smola her seat in Mrs. Cormier's Bookkeeping class; her morning ride to school in her green Olds to Lenore Provost.

JANE KAWECKI wills to her brothers her morning walks to school. She leaves to any despairing Senior, Macbeth, Julius Caesar, and Romeo and Juliet.

PATRICIA KOLANO wills to her sister, Lorraine, all the joys and sorrows of four years at Ludlow High. To any eager sophomore, she leaves all her National Geographic Magazines for use in Mrs. Klemper's geography classes.

CAROL LAFLAMME wills to Donald Libiszewski her ability to drive well. To Barbara Libiszewski she offers her love for Bookkeeping and all the red and blue headaches that go with it.

COLLIN LAKE leaves his seat in detention hall to anyone who is as fortunate as he. When June 12 materializes, he will leave two strips of burnt rubber, two trails of smoke, and a lot of noise to anyone left behind.

BERNARD LAROSE leaves his drawing ability to Chris Lima; his seat in Miss Saulnier's room to anyone who likes to write!

EUGENE LEBOEUF wills his front seat in English to anyone who wants it; his short thirty-second orals to Charles Wikar.

NORMAN LETENDRE wills his knowledge of building hot rods to Dick Dawson, and his sideburns to Marianne Suzor.

ANTONIA LUIZ leaves to Irene Fernandes her seat in Miss Saulnier's class. To Manuela Lopes, she leaves her moth-eaten gym suit and large (?) locker.

ELVIRA LUIZ leaves her ability to type to Nuella Lopes, and her ability to do everything wrong in Miss Smith's classes to Irene Fernandes.

NANCY LUSSIER leaves to Richard Dawson her good marks in English; to anybody who will listen, Mr. Hurley's interesting talks.

EMILIE MARTIN wills her ability to do homework for other classes during class time without being caught to John Chenaille; to any girl who wants them, her gym suit and shower shoes.

BARBARA MARTOWSKI leaves her seat in Problems to her sister, Jeanne, who has to take it anyway. She also wills her ability to do English outlines to Gloria Wakem.

WILLIAM MILROY wills to his brother, Chuck, one pair of dilapidated football shoes. To "Smiley" Brennan, he wills his ability to sleep in class.

CAROL MOCCIO leaves to Victor, Bonnie, and Georgianna the fun of another year in Art together. To her two nephews, she leaves the hope of having a new high school.

ROSEMARIE MONETTE leaves all the fun of the Senior year to Jeanne Martowski. Her four years of English in Miss Saulnier's class she leaves to her brother, Bob.

RICHARD MOORE leaves his seat in Miss Vogian's study to his brother, Bob; and his ability to get out of gym to his cousin, Sonny.

DOROTHY MORISSETTE leaves her ability to give orals to John Douthwright. She also leaves her floor space on the morning bus to Sandy White.

MARY ELLEN NELSON leaves to her brother, Billy, her inability to play football. To Jack Mattot, she leaves the fenders on the school car for him to bend.

KATHLEEN O'NEILL leaves her front seat in Mr. Schimdt's Home Room to her brother, Pat. Her gym suit goes to Maureen.

JEAN OUELETTE wills her disagreements with Miss Kudlic to those who get into trouble with her by always doing the right thing. To her two younger brothers, she wills the hope of getting a new high school.

ERMA PALHEIREDO leaves her seat in Problems to her nephew, Danny, and she hopes he has a better year than she did. Her "love" for Mr. Russell she wills to Joe Jorge, and she hopes that he never is "wise" enough to argue with him as she did.

MARTHA PAUL leaves her seat in Stenography to any non-speller who is crazy enough to take it, and her business ability, if any, to Ann Bourdeau.

GERALDINE PECZKA leaves her long walks to school to Chester Lata, and the walk back home to Kathy Fournier. She also leaves her seat in Mrs. Cormier's Stenography and Typing classes to Ernest Hiersche.

RICHARD PERKINS wills to "Smiley" Brennan and Gerry O'Gorman his daily coke and smoke at Ernie's before school. He leaves his "love" for Miss Vogian to Bob Mucha and "Jackie" Palatino.

CHARLOTTE REYNOLDS leaves her seat in English to her sister, Patty, and her gym clothes to whoever wants them.

JUDITH ROBERTS leaves her gym clothes to anyone who wants them and her ability to just about make the bus to school in the morning to her sisters, Lucille and Lorraine.

STANLEY RYCZEK wills to "Red" Markiewicz "CLOUD 13" in Miss King's class; to "Smiley" his love for going to school.

KATHLEEN SALETNIK wills her desk in Problems and her love for school to her sister, Barbara, and to her brother, Paul.

ISABELLE SMOLA leaves her love for driving to her sister, Carole, Marilyn K., and Barbara M. She leaves her English homework and orals to all the industrious Juniors.

JUDY STUART leaves her love for basketball games to Eddie Brunelle. To Pat Narreau and Charlotte Wrona, she leaves her love for a good time.

CATHERINE STUPAK leaves to her brother, Alex, her seat in Mr. Schmidt's Home Room. To any Junior girl who wants it, she leaves her love for basketball players, and the pleasure of writing to them when they join the Navy.

FRANCES SZLOSEK wills Miss Saulnier, Mr. Boita, Mr. Hurley, and all the fun she's had in Ludlow High School to her brother, Mickey. To Charlotte Wrona, she wills her love for sports, especially baseball.

JOSEPH SZLOSEK leaves the ability to have the opposing football players like him to Stu Leslie and Bob Podoski.

MARGARET TREMBLAY wills her seat in Mr. Schmidt's room to her sister, Ellen. She wills her love for school to Jeannie.

WILLIAM TUCKER wills his seat in Miss Vogian's study to his brother, Tom. His ability to answer questions in English literature he leaves to anyone who wants it.

ANNA VAN WYCK bequeathes to Elaine Chomyn, her headaches and the editor of the Hi-News. To her sister, Joyce, she leaves all the English outlines she wrote for Miss Saulnier's classes.

ROBERT WARREN leaves his ability to "get in Dutch" with Miss Saulnier to Paul Brodeur, and all his arguments in Problems to Billy Nelson.

GLADYS WELCH wills to Maxine Tetrault and Rosemary Guzik her love for reading good enjoyable books, and any old remaining yearbook pictures of herself. To her younger brother, Donald, she leaves her love for homework and her partial knowledge of anything that should be remembered of tests and quizzes.

JOSEPH WERSETSKY leaves his remarkable love for studying to Raymond Vigneault.

JEFFREY WILCOX leaves his lack of knowledge in English to "Smiley" Brennan. To Barbara Blanchard, he leaves his 1940 Ford, if she can ever get it started.

RICHARD WILCOX wills his ability to give orals to his brother, Woody; and his ability to hand in homework a day late to "Punky."

KATHLEEN WLODYKA wills her love for chocolates to Don Papuga. She leaves her ability to get along with her teachers to her brothers, Jimmy and Joe-Joe, and to her sisters, Suzie and Martha.

PATRICIA ZABAWA leaves her seat in Mr. Hurley's Problems class to Dot Malek, and her place in Choralettes to anyone who wants hard work.

We declare the above document to be our first and only testament to date. We reserve the right to alter any and all clauses whenever we choose. However, we hereby appoint Miss Florence M. Saulnier to be the executrix and administrator of this, our first will and testament, and we ordain that she execute said bequests with no regard for any changes we may try to make!!

Given in the executive chamber, Room 207, of the Ludlow High School, in the year of Our Lord one thousand nine hundred and fifty-eight, in the twelfth year of our education, and in the first year of our adulthood.

Students as they raise our voi-ces, singing praise of God!

Handwritten musical notation for a hymn. The title is "Students as they raise our voi-ces, singing praise of God!". The music is written on two staves. The top staff is in treble clef with a key signature of one sharp (F#) and a common time signature (C). The bottom staff is in bass clef with a key signature of one sharp (F#) and a common time signature (C). The melody is simple, consisting of eighth and quarter notes. The lyrics are written below the staves.

High. Ring, oh bells of Alma Mater, bells that call from far and Handwritten musical score for the song "The Rose Tree". The score is written on two systems of staves. The first system consists of a single staff with a treble clef, a key signature of one sharp (F#), and a common time signature (C). The melody is written in a simple, folk-like style. The second system consists of two staves: the top staff has a treble clef and the bottom staff has a bass clef, both with a key signature of one sharp (F#). The melody continues on the top staff, and the bottom staff provides a simple harmonic accompaniment. The lyrics "wide. In our hearts you'll live forever, as we hold you in our pride" are written below the first staff. The score ends with a double bar line and a repeat sign.

Always in our hearts we'll cherish memories of our hallow High
Happy hours, days and years; in your arms we know no fears

Ne'er thru all the years shall perish your guiding hand from God on high
Gently guiding our first steps on life's broad path we love you best

Always hailing you, Alma Mater, as proudly from your doors we wander.
Should we linger here a while, 'tis but to reminisce and smile.
